

PRIVACY POLICY

Pursuant to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (hereafter "Regulation"), we describe the modalities of processing personal data of users who consult the website of the company VPS Group Srl, accessible at the following address <http://www.vpsgroup.it/>. This information notice is also provided pursuant to art. 13 of (EU) Regulation 2016/679 and article 10 of Italian Legislative Decree 51/2018.

This information does not apply to other sites, pages or online services accessible via hypertext links published on the site but referring to resources outside the vpsgroup.it domain.

DATA CONTROLLER

Following consultation of the aforementioned site, data relating to identified or identifiable natural persons may be processed.

The data controller is VPS Group Srl, with registered office in Via San Vitale Ovest, 2901 Medicina Loc. Villa Fontana (BO) Tel.051 853330 fax 051 853117 e-mail: amm@vpsgroup.it Certified E-mail Address: vpsgroup@businesswebsrl.net

LEGAL BASIS FOR THE PROCESSING

The personal data indicated on this page are processed by the Data Controller following the free consent provided by the user ("involved in the processing") to the Data Controller. The optional, explicit and voluntary sending of electronic mail to the address indicated on this site and the completion of electronic forms to forward requests aimed at using the services offered or proposed initiatives to receive promotions, advertising material, estimates of expenditure and possible provision of services, involves the acquisition of the address of the sender, as well as any other personal data included in the message and/or in the electronic form.

TYPES OF DATA PROCESSED AND PURPOSE OF THE PROCESSING

Navigation data

The computer systems and software procedures used to operate this site acquire, during their normal operation, some personal data the transmission of which is implicit in the use of Internet communication protocols.

This category of data includes IP addresses or domain names of computers and terminals used by users, addresses in URI/URL notation (Uniform Resource Identifier/Locator) of the requested resources, the time of the request, the method used in submitting the request to the server, the file size obtained in response, the numerical code indicating the status of the response given by the server (success, error, etc.) and other parameters related to the operating system and the user's computer environment.

Data communicated by the user

The optional, explicit and voluntary sending of messages to the company's contact addresses, as well as the completion and submission of the forms on the site, entail the acquisition of the sender's contact data, necessary to respond to the requests of the user, as well as all personal data included in the communications.

Personal data collected by this site (through our provider, whose data can be provided upon request of the interested party), are processed at the headquarters of the data controller, with manual procedures (for e.g. on paper) and/or through electronic and/or telematic tools.

Specific security measures are observed to prevent the loss of data, illicit or incorrect use and unauthorised access.

These data, necessary for the use of web services, are also processed for the following purposes:

1. to perform the service or services requested by the user;
2. marketing by sending promotional and advertising material, also by e-mail and fax,

Failure, partial or incorrect provision of personal data, for the purposes referred to in paragraph 1. may make it impossible to satisfy the users' requests.

The provision of data, for the purposes referred to in paragraph 2., is to be considered optional and therefore, in case of refusal, there are no consequences if not the inability to implement initiatives aimed at improving the service.

Cookies and other tracking systems

(What are cookies?)

Cookies are small text files exchanged between a website and the user's navigation browser, each time the internet site is accessed. They are used to perform automatic authentication, to keep track of sessions, to store information to improve the browsing of the site or the user's browsing experience. Each domain visited through a browser can set one or more cookies. An Internet page can contain objects that come from many different domains and each of them can set cookies (in this case called "third-party" cookies). The use of cookies improves the browsing experience on the website and can maintain the settings chosen during the next visit.

There are two types of cookies:

*first-party cookies (or session cookies): readable only by the domain that created them;
third-party cookies: created and readable by external domains to the one we are visiting.*

We do not use cookies for user profiling, nor are other tracking methods used.

Instead, session cookies (non-persistent cookies) are used in such a way that they are strictly limited to what is necessary for the safe and efficient browsing of the site. Session cookie storage in terminals or browsers is under the user's control. In addition, third-party widgets such as Facebook and Twitter can be incorporated into the site. These Widgets could set third-party cookies on the user's computer, to improve its functionality

Details on the purpose of these cookies are described in the owner's privacy policy:

DATA RECIPIENTS

The personal data provided are communicated to the internal staff and/or our collaborators specifically authorised to process such data at the precise instructions of the Data Controller for the pursuit of the aforementioned purposes or for maintenance operations to the computer system.

Without prejudice to the communications made in the fulfilment of obligations provided for by laws, regulations or Community legislation, the collected data may be communicated in Italy to the subjects or categories of subjects such as: authorities or Public Institutions, other suppliers of goods and/or services necessary to satisfy user requests.

RIGHTS OF THE DATA SUBJECT

The data subjects have the right to obtain from the Data Controller in the cases provided, access to personal data and the correction or deletion of the same or the limitation of the processing that concerns him/her or to oppose the processing (art. 15 et seq. of the Regulation). The specific request must be sent to VPS Group Srl, with registered office in Via San Vitale Ovest, 2901 40059 Medicina Loc. Villa Fontana (BO) Tel.051 853330 fax 051 853117, Certified E-mail Address amm@vpsgroup.it, vpsgroup@businesswebsrl.net

DATA RETENTION

Personal data processed for the purposes referred to in paragraph 1 above will be stored for the time strictly necessary to achieve those same purposes.

Personal data processed for the purposes referred to in paragraph 2 will be retained until the consent provided is revoked, up to the exercise of the right to object and in any case no later than ten years from the date of collection.

RIGHT OF COMPLAINT

The data subjects who believe that the processing of personal data referring to them through this site is in breach of the provisions of the Regulation have the right to lodge a complaint with the Authority as provided for by art. 77 of the Regulation itself, or to apply to the relevant court (art. 79 of the Regulation).

AMENDMENTS

This privacy policy is effective from 24 May 2018. VPS GROUP srl reserves the right to amend or simply update its content, in whole or in part, also due to changes in the applicable legislation. VPS GROUP srl will inform you of these amendments as soon as they are introduced and they will become binding as soon as they are published on the Website.
